[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO SEPT. 17.

Thiers and his Mission to England.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—A telegram to the Tribune dated New York, Sept. 17th, says: Up to 6 o'clock yesterday evening, M. Thiers had submitted no other tangible proposals to the British Government than that the neutral Powers should simultaneously exert their good offices for the restoration of peace. It is absolutely true, as before telegraphed, that Thiers is in England without instructions, credentials or power of offering any guarantees on the part of France.

Attempt to Assassinate Napoleon.

BERLIN, Sept. 17.—Considerable excitement was occasioned at Wilhelmsohn, recently, by an attempt to assassinate the French Emperor by a German apprentice, who was arrested before he could accomplish his purpose. A loaded pistol was found on his person. He declared that the bullet was designed for Napoleon.

Italian Affairs.

FLORENCE, Sept. 15.—It is reported that the Pope has left Rome.

ROME, Sept. 17.—The inhabitants received a flag of truce from Gen. Cadorna, in command of the troops who have arrived very close to the city. The people received a flag of truce with great demonstrations of favor and will not permit the Papal Zouaves to resist the Italian troops.

A dispatch from Milan reports a serious though brief engagement, six miles from Rome. The Papal Zouaves lost thirty killed, and 145 wounded. The rest surrendered. It is virtually certain that the Italian army reached Rome to-night.

Military Movements around Paris.

PARIS, Sept. 17.—The Prussians are still numerous near Neuvedammertier and at La Plea. A force of 30,000 have occupied Villois Cotterois, and there are 10,000 at Manten. It is believed the Prussian line of attack will be from the east, by way of Vincennes.

TOURS, Sept. 17.—The fort of Vincennes was blown up and destroyed yesterday by the French, the position being untenable. It is understood there were several minor engagements outside of the fortifications of Paris yesterday.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—News from Paris is meagre and contradictory. The usual lines of communication are interrupted. The northern railway, leading from Orleans to Paris is cut between Ablon and Jursey, about eight miles south of Paris. At the latter place, the Germans had planted a battery. Heavy firing has been heard in that direction, and it is thought a battle is in progress. No details received.

A sharp fight occurred at Ris, another small town on the Orleans railway, where the lines had been cut.

The railway to Leon is now entirely in Prussian hands.

PARIS, Sept. 17.—No railroad trains left Paris this morning by order of the Committee of Defence.

Siege of Strasbourg.

LONDON, Sept. 17th.—A dispatch from Bera muth, eleven miles northwest from Strasbourg, says there was heavy firing all day from heavy guns in the third parallel, causing great destruction to the walls and citadel. An effort to carry the fortifications by storm will doubtless be made to-morrow. The sufferings of the people are very great, and provisions are served out in limited quantities.

Germans Closing around Paris.

PARIS, Sept. 16.—The advance of the Prussians steadily continues. They are closing in on Paris in a way indicating an attack on the southern and southeastern sides, and are massing in that direction so as to secure supplies and at the same time prevent reinforcements from the southwest to the besieged.

Military men of experience say the power of the city is limited only by the supply of food.

General Military News

PARIS, Sep. 16, 9.50 P. M.—The "Rappel" has just been sounded, and the forces have been called to arms and the sentinels doubled. Prussians have been signalled this morning. An engagement took place on the road from Melun to Roi between the sharpshooters and the Prussians. Many are wounded. The result is not known.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—A dispatch from Paris says Trochu to-day received the advance guard of a corps of 10,000 armed volunteers.

Metz still holds out, and it is said that Bazaine has 75,000 men, and an abundance of provisions and ammunition. He is constantly harassing the enemy.

The bombardment of Toul was resumed yesterday forenoon and continued until night.

McMahon Again.

BOUILLON, Sept. 16.—McMahon accompanied by General Chasel, of the Belgian troops, arrived here today.

Blockade Raised.

BERLIN, Sept. 16.—The Belgian Legation was officially notified of the raising of the French blockade in the Baltic and North Sea on the 15th.

Dispatches via London.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—A dispatch from Berra muth, eleven miles northwest of Strasburg, yesterday, says fires are inevitable from the ever ceaseless bombardment. Fugitives state that the sufferings of the people are intense. Provisions are limited at Montmedy, and sickness continues great.

On the 14th, the citizens made another appeal to Ulrich to yield to the inevitable destiny, as the fall of the fortress cannot be long delayed.

It is reported that the Foreign Office has Bismarck's reply to the demand of Jules Favre for an armistice. Bismarck says there are questions yet to be settled with France before a suspension of hostilities is possible.

The Prussian attack on Paris is to be directed first against Vincennes. A large body of Parisian troops will confront them there.

Hoisting the red flag at Lyons in defiance of the Government creates uneasiness. Severe measures will be taken to punish the offenders.

Fifty thousand infantry and cavalry of the Grand Duchy of Baden, with twenty cannon, occupied Colmar on Thursday, after a skirmish with French riflemen.

The Uhlans are reported at Conrals.

Mr. Lowe, Chancellor of the Exchequer, in a speech at Elgin, pronounced in the strongest manner against intervention or mediation between France and Prussia in any form whatever.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—Bavaria has repudiated any desire to enter the North German Confederation.

The Standard's Berlin correspondent gives the substance of a conversation held with Bismarck, which confirmed the opinion that Prussia would prosecute the war indefinitely rather than abandon the idea of territorial aggrandizement.

A dispatch from Florence states that the Italian fleet is concentrating at Civita Vecchia.

Dispatches from Paris.

PARIS, Sept. 16. This morning an engagement took place on the road from Melun to Berie Comte Robert between the sharpshooters and Prussians, result unknown.

It is reported that the Prussians are attacking Vincennes and Charenton.

The advance guard of the enemy has been signalled at Cretial, within sight of the fort of Charenone and four kilometers from Charenone.

Prussians are at Cretiel, Calamont, Charenone, and Stoner, almost within cannon shot of the walls of Paris.

The Prussians now occupy some small woods around Paris which were too green to burn.

Cannonading and musketry firing has been heard all day in the direction of Bourget.

Prussia demands the restoration of Napoleon.

Marshal Valliant has been arrested.

The Bombardment of Toul was resumed yesterday forenoon, and continued all night.

If Napoleon should turn up some fine morning in New York, carpet-bag in hand, and want a situation, what are the Democracy going to do about it? Make him an alderman and give little Louis a clerkship? They make a great fuss about carpet baggers, and such a case would put them to the test. If it happens, we shall see whether they like the carpet-bagger less, or Napoleon more.

PACIFIC COAST DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—About 500 persons, mainly depositors, attended the meeting to consider the affairs of the California Building, Savings and Loan Society, last night. J. F. Handy, book keeper, stated that the assets on hand September 1st were as follows: Cash, $23,12[illegible]; City Bonds, $86 485 07; Bank Building, $71,225 00; Loans, $520,773 01. Total, $651,613 37. Liabilities amount to $605,236 87, leaving a surplus of $46,170 50. The stockholders will lose all they own. If assets were good they could pay dollar for dollar, but he estimated that assets amounting to about $100,000 or more were bad, as follows: Mortgages and notes, $25,000; loans on stock, $35,000; bank building, only worth $50,000; Loans on real estate (title bad), $10,000; loans on the building's stock, $10,000; which would make them short $53,553 50. The affairs cannot be wound up in less than a year, and the assets in that time would draw enough interest to pay nearly dollar for dollar, that is, if it is managed honestly. A motion was carried that depositors sign an agreement to leave their funds in the bank for twelve months, and to elect Trustees who are to give bonds.

Gen. Sherman.

The Pioneers escorted General Sherman on board the Orifamme this morning, and the crowd on the wharf gave him cheer after cheer as the steamer moved off. A fine band was in attendance and gave him "Marching Through Georgia," as long as he was within hearing distance.

Vessels for Portland.

The Orient cleared yesterday for Portland, and the Commodore has just been laid on. At present the following vessels are up for Portland: Commodore, Edward James, Emma Augusta, and Perpetua. The two first load in Merrill's line and the last in Simpson's. Another vessel will soon be secured for Dart's line. It is not often we have so many vessels up at the same time for Oregon. Just now considerable freight is going forward. The above vessels will load iron and assorted merchandise, and will return to this port with produce and lumber. The cargo of Mexican salt, per Staghound, has been cleared for Oregon without breaking bulk.

General Dispatches.

T. L. Couran, residing at No. 22, Park avenue, while hunting yesterday, had his right hand blown off by the accidental discharge of his gun.

August Borhoff, aged thirty-five, a native of Germany, fell overboard from the schooner Reliance and was drowned.

An assault and battery case, which, it is supposed, will pan out rich, will come up before the Police Court on Monday. The defendant is an old and not beautiful attorney, who charges the complainant (a young Adonis), also an attorney, with tampering with the affections of his wife. Both are well known in the community.

Charles Lott, working on the spire of the new church on Powell street, was hit on the head by a plank falling from above, and his skull fractured.

A thousand-dollar horse, owned by Geo. Duncan, being frightened by boys while tied to a post, threw himself down with such force that it fractured his skull and instantly killed him.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

MARYSVILLE, Sept. 17.—It is reported that within a month the construction forces on the San Joaquin Valley Road will return to the California and Oregon Road, to complete it through to Tehama.

The report that the Tide Land Reclaiming Company will levee the west bank of the Sacramento river, to reclaim overflowed lands in Colusa, creates considerable excitement among the farmers in Sutter county. They say that the levee will close several large outlets west of the Sacramento and consequently force the water over the east bank, flooding and destroying their farms. They propose to test the constitutionality of the law in the courts.

John Hoble, a shoemaker, shot at Dr. C. Barrington, at the entrance to his office this evening, but did not hit him. He was intoxicated, and was angry because the Doctor had sued him for a long standing bill. He was arrested and lodged in the city prison.

GILROY, Sept. 17.—The Visalia stage, coming north, was stopped about 2 P. M. by highwaymen, and Wells, Fargo & Co's treasure box was taken. It is not known how much it contained.

THE OREGON LEGISLATURE.

Sixth Biennial Session

SENATE—Morning Session.

SALEM, Saturday, September 17th.

The Senate was called to order at 10 A. M. by President Fay.

The roll was called and all the members were recorded as present except Mr. Pershbaker.

Mr. President—As there is no clergyman present the Senate will have to do without prayers this morning.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Mr. Mosher, from the Committee on Judiciary, reported that the committee had appointed Byron Holmes clerk of that committee, and requested that the Secretary of State be required to administer the usual oath.

On motion of Mr. Mosher the report was adopted.

Mr. Baldwin, from the Committee on Enrolling, reported S. J. R. No. 1, 2 and 3 correctly enrolled.

Mr. Holtzclaw introduced S. B. No. 3, a bill to authorize the Secretary of State to furnish each member with three dollars' worth of stamps. Section 1, Article 2, Title 4.

On the motion of Mr. Holtzclaw the rules were suspended and the bill read a second time by Title—ayes 15, nays 6.

Mr. Trevitt suggested that this being an appropriation bill, it should originate in the House.

Mr. President—Bills to create a revenue list originate in the House; other bills may originate in either House. As this is not a bill to create revenue it may properly be introduced here.

Mr. Holtzclaw moved to further suspend the rules, consider the bill engrossed and read a third time by title.

A motion was made by Mr. Cornelius to refer to the Judiciary Committee, but was lost.

The rules were suspended and the bill read a third time and passed—yeas, Baldwin, Brown of Baker, Burch, Cochran, Crawford, Hendershott, Holtzclaw, Hoult, Lieuallen, Mosher, Patterson, Howell, Watts, Witham and Mr. President—15, noes, Brown of Marion, Cornelius, Moores, Stout, Thompson, Trevitt—6.

Mr. Baldwin gave notice of a bill to create an Insurance Commissioner for this State.

Mr. Baldwin introduced S. B. No. 4, a bill to create a Board of Equalization for the various counties in this State, and to amend Section 4 of Chapter 2 of Title 4 of the General Laws of Oregon.

On motion of Mr. Mosher the rules were suspended and the bill read by title.

A MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE,

Announcing the concurrence of the House in S. J. R., authorizing the Secretary of State to furnish Secretary of both Houses and Judges of the Supreme Court with a copy each of the laws and code.

Mr. Hendershott—The Yamhill county contested election case is now before the Committee on Elections, and as the depositions are voluminous, it will require some time to investigate it before the committee, and I would suggest that the Benton county contest be referred to a select committee.

On motion of Mr. Mosher, the committee on Elections were required to report the contested election case from Benton county back to the Senate, the ayes were Brown of Baker county, Burch, Cochran, Crawford, Hendershott, Holtzclaw, Hoult, Lieuallen, Mosher, Patterson, Stout, Trevitt—12. The noes were Baldwin, Brown of Marion county, Cornelius, Moore, Powell, Thompson, Watts, Witham and Mr. President.

Mr. Hendershott, from the committee on Elections, reported the bill back to the Senate.

Mr. Mosher moved to adopt the report.

Mr. Cornelius—This whole action I believe to be unparliamentary in this case. The papers have not been opened by the committee. The only proper course, it seems to me, would have been to have reconsidered the vote by which the bill was referred.

Mr. Stout concurred with Mr. Cornelius that the order referring the bill should have been reconsidered.

Mr. Cochran inquired where the papers were if not in the hands of the committee, and said he was unwilling to consume all the time of the session with these contested election cases.

Mr. Hendershott—The papers were offered to me by the contestants, but as the committee had the Yamhill county contest under consideration, I requested them to retain the papers until that was disposed of.

Mr. President—The committee were constructively in possession of the papers. I think the proper course has been pursued in ordering the committee to report the case back to the Senate for its sanction.

Mr. Hoult moved to refer to a special committee.

Mr. Trevitt moved to amend and refer to the committee of the Whole.

On motion of Mr. Trevitt the Senate resolved itself into a committee of the Whole to consider the contest between Mr. Strahan, contestant, and Mr. Witham, the sitting member from Benton county.

Mr. Cochran in the Chair.

On motion of Mr. Cornelius the parties, sitting members and contestants, were allowed to appear personally or by attorney.

Mr. Witham—By agreement there has been but one set of papers taken in this case and they are in possession of the House committee. I ask time to get those papers.

Mr. Cornelius moved that the committee rise and report progress.

Mr. Fay moved that the Sergeant-at-Arms be ordered to arrest the House committee and bring them in here with the papers. Not seconded.

Mr. Burch stated that one of the contestants had gone after the papers and would soon return.

Mr. Cornelius withdrew his motion.

Mr. Strahan, contestant, said the chairman of the House had given him only part of the papers and desired all of the papers at 1 P. M., so that the committee might conclude the investigation already in progress.

Mr. Hendershott inquired what portion of the papers were in Mr. Strahan's possession and if the gentleman could commence the case.

Mr. Strahan, said he was willing to present the papers if the Senate so desired. On motion of Mr. Trevitt the committee rose and reported progress, and asked leave to sit again.

On motion of Mr. Hendershott the report of the committee was adopted.

The Senate adjourned until 10 A. M. Monday.

HOUSE—Morning Session.

SALEM, Saturday, Sept. 17.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock A. M. by Speaker Hayden. All the members present.

Prayer was offered by Rev. A. F. Waller, of the M. E. Church, Salem.

The Journal of yesterday was read, corrected and approved.

CHINESE CUE BILL.

Mr. Amis, from the select committee on the bill to tax persons for wearing their hair in a cue, submitted the following majority report:

Your committee to whom was referred House bill No. 3, An Act to discourage caste, beg leave to make the following report: That they have had under careful consideration said bill, and would recommend the following amendments: That section 5 of said bill read as follows: "Any person who shall give employment to another who shall violate section 1 of this Act shall be subject to be arrested and carried before the nearest Justice of the Peace, and such Justice may fine such person the sum of ten dollars and costs; nor shall any person who shall violate section 1 of this act recover any debt or be entitled to recover any contract made while so violating it." Also, that the following be added to section 2: "Inasmuch as there is no law now in force in this State sufficient to meet the end in contemplation by this Act, the same shall take effect and be in force thirty days from and after its approval by the Governor." Your committee would further state that the bill, in their judgment, is admirably adapted to answer the ends contemplated, which is to remedy a great and impending evil, and under which the people of this State are now laboring. Your committee would, therefore, ask the adoption of the proposed amendment and the adoption of the bill.

JAMES F. AMIS,
H. PORTER.

Mr. Olney—I believe that this bill has been made the special order for Tuesday next; if so, then whatever relates to it should go with the bill and come up for discussion at that time. I move that the report be laid upon the table and made the special order for Tuesday next. The motion prevailed.

COMMITTEE ON INSANE ASYLUM.

Mr. Helm moved to increase the House portion of the joint Committee on Insane Asylum to five members.

Mr. Lockhart raised the point of order that the committee could not be increased without the consent of the Senate.

The Speaker was of opinion that the point was not well taken but asked an expression of opinion from members on the question.

Mr. Hare thought the motion in order.

Mr. Dorris was under the impression that a joint resolution would be necessary.

Mr. Paquet—I arise to a point of order. The original motion has not yet been stated by the Chair, therefore all this discussion is out of order.

The Speaker stated Mr. Helm's motion.

Mr. Whiteaker—I suggested the propriety of changing the motion to a joint resolution.

Mr. Helm offered a joint resolution embodying the subject matter of the motion.

Mr. Whiteaker—I would like to see the motion withdrawn before anything else is entered, as it will otherwise be stated on the journal as undisposed of.

Mr. Helm—I will withdraw the motion and move the adoption of the resolution.

The resolution was adopted.

SECOND READING OF BILLS.

The following bills were read a second time and disposed of as indicated. House bill No. 4, an act to amend section 9 of chapter 2 of the general laws of the State of Oregon, by Mr. Amis.

Mr. Whalley offered a substitute, exempting $500 worth of personal property from taxation for each householder, the articles to be selected by him. The substitute, together with the bill, were referred to the Judiciary Committee.

House bill No. 5, an act relating to water rights and the right of way to construct canals, flumes and ditches, by Mr. McCoy; referred to the Committee on Mining.

Senate bill No. 3, an act to furnish postage stamps to the members of the Legislature, allows three dollars each, announced by message from the Senate, and read the second time under suspension of the rules.

Mr. Grant offered an amendment to include the officers of the Legislature, which was adopted. The bill was passed under suspension of the rule, 43 ayes to 14 noes.

At 11:30 the House adjourned.

HOUSE—Afternoon Session.

The House met at 2 o'clock P. M., the Speaker in the Chair.

Mr. Grant—As there is no business before the House, I move to adjourn until Monday.

Mr. Dorris—If the gentleman will withdraw his motion a moment, I will make a report from a committee. The motion was withdrawn.

Mr. Dorris, from the special committee to whom was referred the question of Mr. Dunbar's eligibility as a member, reported that, from the evidence submitted, the committee had found him legally qualified to sit as a member of this House.

Mr. Helm—I move to receive and adopt the report.

Mr. Whalley raised the point of order that the report was received as a matter of course, and that so much of the motion as relates to receiving the report would be unnecessary and out of order.

Mr. Speaker—I think it is first in order to receive the report and then to consider it.

Mr. Whalley—The report has already been received.

Mr. Speaker—I think not.

Mr. Helm—I think the gentleman from Multnomah (Whalley) is right. I withdraw the first part of my motion and move to adopt the report. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Apperson—I move to discharge the committee.

Mr. Hare—I do not like to see such a motion go on the record, as it is unnecessary.

Mr. Apperson withdrew his motion.

At 2:30 the House adjourned until Monday.

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING SEPT [illegible] 18[illegible]

An Answer to Gov Grover and the "Herald."

We have maintained in these columns that a State has neither the right nor the Constitutional power to exclude foreign immigration, and therefore that Gov. Grover's proposition to exclude the Chinese by State authority is unsound. The Herald attempts a defense of the Governor, and asserts that a State can shut its doors against any foreign people it may see fit to exclude. It challenges our position in this matter.

As to the OREGONIAN's assertion that its position can be substantiated by the authorities of the highest judicial tribunal, we further produce at present a flat denial to its flat assertion.

As it is our habit to substantiate every position we take, we now beg leave to call the attention of the Herald and Gov. Grover to the language of the Supreme Court of the United States in Smith vs. Turner and Norris vs. the City of Boston, and in other cases reported in VIIth Howard. We should state by way of introduction that these cases grew out of an attempt by the States of Massachusetts and New York to impose taxes on aliens coming into the ports of those States.

The States have reserved the police right to turn off from their territory, paupers, vagabonds and fugitives from justice. But they have not reserved the use of taxation universally to accomplish that object, as they had it before they became the United States. Having surrendered to the United States the sovereign police power over commerce, to be exercised by Congress or the treaty making power, it is necessarily a part of the power of the United States to determine who shall come to and reside in the United States for the purposes of trade, independently of every other condition of admittance which the States may attempt to impose on such persons.

Is this explicit and emphatic enough to satisfy Gov. Grover and the Herald? It ought to be, but if it is not let them take the following statement by the Court of their own position,—a statement clearer than any they have yet been able to make,—with the answer of the Court to its fallacies.

But it was assumed that a State has unlimited discretion, in virtue of its unsurrendered police power, to determine what persons shall reside in it. Then it was said to follow that the State can remove all persons who are thought dangerous to its welfare; and to this right to remove, it was said, the right to determine who shall enter the State is an inseparable incident.

Now note the answer to these fallacious positions which are substantially those of Gov. Grover and the Herald.

That erroneous proposition of the State's discretion in this matter has led to all the more mistaken inferences made from it. The error arose from its having been overlooked that a part of the supreme police power of a nation is identical with its sovereignty over commerce. Or more properly speaking, the regulation of commerce is one of those particular rights collectively placed in the hands of the sovereign for the good of the State. Until it is shown that the police power in one of its particulars is not what it has just been said to be, the discretion of a State of this Union to determine what persons may come to and reside in it, remains unproved. It cannot be proved, and the laws of Massachusetts and New York derive no support from police power in favor of their constitutionality.

Thus it is shown by the highest judicial tribunal that a State has not the right to determine what persons shall come to and reside in it. Gov. Grover is therefore in error when he says that the States heretofore "held the right to admit or exclude such persons (foreigners) as they should deem proper." Such an error on his part is inexcusable. If he is ignorant on the subject he has no business to meddle with it; if he is informed upon it and purposely misrepresents the law and the facts, what words are severe enough to give him the characterization he deserves?

The above extracts are from the opinion of Justice Wayne, who summed up what the Court meant to decide in these important cases. "Commerce of the United States," said the Court, "includes an intercourse of persons as well as an importation of merchandise." A State therefore can no more shut out foreign passengers than it can exclude cargoes of sugar or railroad iron.

Will Gov. Grover and the Herald take notice also that this has been the established rule ever since the Constitution of 1789 went into operation, and that therefore the Burlingame Treaty with China does not take away from this State any power that it ever possessed to exclude the Chinese? The State never had such power, and of course would not have the power if the Treaty were annulled to-morrow.

"France was not Ready."

On the 11th August in the Corps Legislatif the veteran statesman Thiers spoke thus:

> To-day we are contending with only one power and the world is astonished at our reverses. What is the explanation of this? France was not ready. No, we were not ready. What other explanation can be given for recent events than this: France was not ready and the government incapable. If you wish to shield these men you compromise the country. I do certainly not desire to overwhelm unfortunate men and add sorrow which must fill their hearts, but men must not be defended at the expense of the country.

Three weeks before Thiers uttered those words he had voted against the war, for which he was bitterly denounced. Of clearer vision than the Emperor and his ministers, he foresaw what they failed to see, that France was not ready. And now after terrible reverses of arms, after immense sacrifice of life, the old statesman stands humble and sorrowful, apologizing to the world for the shadow that has fallen on his country. Yet eager to do justice to the valor of French soldiers, he reiterates again and again that France was not ready for the war, and that she has been sacrificed by an "incapable government." Such will be the verdict of history. While the world has been astonished at beholding the terrible earnestness, valor and strength of Germany, it has been almost equally astonished at witnessing the weakness of France—no, not of France, but of the Empire.

The New York Tribune shows that the national debt was paid off during the month of August at the rate of about half a million dollars a day. During the past six months the daily reduction has been more than $448,000. And during every day since President Grant began his economical administration the debt has been lessened—and with it the taxes and other burdens of the people—by more than $300,000. Here are the figures:

Debt decrease during August	$13 404 [illegible]
Debt decrease since March 1 1870	[illegible]
Debt decrease since March 4 1869	109 543 109 10

The New York Herald, referring to this record, pointedly asks: "Does the Administration need any more convincing campaign documents than such bulletins?"

Congressman Smith, it is reported, was in this city nearly all of last week, but as soon as he heard of the queue and [illegible] bill he started with precipitation for Salem. Mr. Smith will certainly insist pertinaciously upon his constitutional right to keep up his intellectual appearance by raising his brow an inch or so with the razor. It is hoped that the advocates of the bill can be bought off or induced in some way to desist from their barbarous purpose, or at any rate to except certain Democratic statesmen from the penalties of the bill.

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL

SALEM, [illegible]

It may be remembered, possibly, by a few people that one of the principal Democratic arguments in the last two campaigns against the Republican party was its want of economy in the administration of State affairs, and it strikes me that I have heretofore read somewhere that the Democracy [illegible] restore the [illegible] of economy. [illegible] and others who may have heard or read similar assurances. At all events there was a pretty general impression [illegible] the assertion that that was one of the distinctive edges of the Democracy. Every department of the State is now Democratic and of course we all believe that the era of economy has [illegible] dawned on us. Those of us who are here at the [illegible] capital can [illegible] under the old Republican rule the members of the Legislature used to be so extravagant as to pay their own postage out of the pitiful pay of three dollars per day—surely a hardship upon the people grievous to be borne. The rule is now changed, and the State Treasury, the filling of which costs nobody a cent, is to furnish each member and officer of the Legislature with $3 in U. S. postage. Cheap enough, and away goes one item of expense under which our tax payers have groaned. The Republicans used to commit great waste by using one or two committee rooms, and the committees went to the extravagant expense of performing their own clerical labor. Now under the Democratic regime of economy there are to be ten or a dozen committee rooms all rented of sturdy Democrats at figures which will set at large considerable sums of money among the people, and several of the committees are to remove the general incubus of a tight money market by employing clerks. If it be objected that this will increase the aggregate expense of the Legislative Assembly it may be answered that it will set afloat and add to the volume of the circulating medium an equally large aggregate of cash, thus rendering it so much easier to pay the enlarged taxes. In this connection I may mention that the new Governor is having an executive office fitted up in the Woolen Manufacturing Co.'s brick building—an evidence that the late "managing agent" of that company has not forgotten what is the first duty of a Democratic politician—to feather his own nest. It will be gratifying to know that whatever sums of money may dribble from the Treasury on account of the Governor's office accommodations will run into the bank account of the Woolen Mills and thus be saved. It will be simply a transfer of funds from one department of the State Government to another.

THE CONTESTED CASES.

Two or three days since the Democrats in both houses manifested much impatience to bring on the trial of the contested cases. Their zeal in pressing the matter to an early solution, was of the most exemplary sort till Herman was contested out of and Mosher contested into a seat in the Senate, since when the managers have made haste more slowly. In the House to-day, through the persistence of Dunbar of Marion, the committee in his case made a report, unanimously, to the effect that his eligibility is unquestionable, and so ends the case for the present. It looks as though the committee and the Democratic majority were disposed to be fair, don't it? But if it be told that the finding of Dunbar's residence at Grand Ronde, because of his employment there, would be equivalent to finding that several Republicans whose votes are questioned by contestants from Yamhill and Benton had a right to vote there, then it will be understood what sort of fairness influenced the committee. The long and the short of it is that Dunbar was kept in that four or five or six other Republicans might be the more easily turned out. When the time comes we shall be called upon to say weeping adieus to the Republican members from Benton, Yamhill and probably Clackamas.

In the Senate this morning the Committee on Elections was instructed to report the Benton contested case—Strahan vs. Witham—back to the Senate, and the case was then referred to the Committee of the Whole. The Senate went into the Committee of the Whole to take up the case, when it was found that there was but one set of papers for the members and contestants in both Houses, and that set was in the hands of the chairman of the House Committee on Elections, who insisted on his right to retain possession. So the committee rose and the Senate adjourned till Monday. As the Senatorial election is to come off on Tuesday, it may be expected that Monday will be a day with big results.

WHO IS TO BE SENATOR?

That's the question. It is asked a hundred times a day, but nobody answers. The exact reason why nobody comes to time on that conundrum is because nobody knows. The Kelly men hold conferences and count noses, morning and evening, but somehow the noses always fall a few short. It is reported on the outside semi-officially that there was a rough time in the caucus Friday evening, that some even of the bed-rock Democrats whose records are as straight as a string, indulged in the pastime of calling each other pet names, and that the brotherhood separated in anything but a brotherly tender frame of mind. A final caucus, a sort of fourteenthly or "just one last word more," will be held on Monday, when the noses will be counted again.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN.

The Masons and Odd Fellows of Salem are taking the preliminary steps to the erection of a temple for their joint use. Committees from all the lodges met last evening to consider the matter. Two locations were offered—one at the northwest corner of the block on which the Opera House stands, for $10,000, and the other the site of the Capital Hotel (destroyed by fire) for $6,000. The committees agreed upon a preference for the latter site, and will report in favor of its purchase. It is proposed to organize a joint stock Building Association, with a capital of $30,000, divided into shares of $25 each. Messrs. Stinson, Patton and Babcock were appointed a sub committee to effect the organization of the Association. If the proposition to take Mr. Mallory's ground be adopted by the Lodges the temple will have a ground front of eighty feet on State and Liberty streets, with an extension along State street over Mallory's building, now erected, of twenty feet. The upper story will then be eighty by one hundred feet—large enough for two lodge rooms. The ground floor may be divided into three large store rooms, and the middle story into offices.

Gas from the new works was first used in stores, hotels, saloons, etc., this evening. The effort is not a very brilliant success. The lights have a very shoddy appearance, but a day or two of further experiment may remedy all defects either in the works or the quality of the gas.

There was a horse race at the fair grounds this afternoon, and of course a general rush of sports and spectators in that direction. A horse called "Joe Hooker" took the premium—I mean the purse, though what renowned piece of horse flesh he beat was something I could not learn.

Senator Stout has so far recovered as to appear in his seat to-day.

The "little unpleasantness" that occurred at the Capitol the other day, whereby Mr. A. M. Snyder was deprived of his position as Sergeant at Arms of the House, is the subject of an explanatory letter from that gentleman which appears in our columns to-day. We publish the letter at his solicitation, inasmuch as it seems only fair that he should have an opportunity to be heard. The unpleasant [illegible] in all its [illegible] and [illegible] of that party [illegible] we have no [illegible] to make to the proceedings.

The Democrats are seriously alarmed over the [illegible]. They look like [illegible] reduced taxation and diminution of the debt. They have vainly endeavored [illegible] different results and have [illegible] that [illegible] will insist on twice two making four and nothing else. They have discovered that figures will not lie, and feel hopelessly helpless in their endeavor to [illegible] them into Democratic [illegible].

The New York Times of the 31st August says: Last night's meeting of the Germans of the Twentieth Ward we take to be the beginning of a movement that will operate powerfully in the politics of this city and State. The promises which enabled the Democratic party in the last election to secure the German vote have been so flagrantly disregarded that disgust and disaffections are the consequence. The pro French sympathies of that party, as shown since the commencement of the war, are another cause of offense.

England considers the annexation of Alsace and Lorraine unwise, but will never fire a shot to oppose the demands of Germany.

France should address the King of Prussia direct and ascertain the terms on which he will treat for peace.

Bismarck asked an explanation from the Belgian government for having allowed 1[illegible],000 French to cross her territory unchecked.

Dispatch from Tours.

TOURS, Sept 17.—The following has been promulgated through the office of the French Secretary of the Interior: All service of northern railways is suspended. The Prussians have fired into passing trains at Abelon and Darned depot, and then crossed the Seine with 50 cannon.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

A sturgeon has been brought to Victoria, weighing [illegible] pounds and measuring 11½ feet in length, said to be the largest yet caught in the Fraser. It was captured opposite New Westminster in a net.

The estate of Isaac Humphreys, who died three years ago at the old French Hotel in Victoria, is still unclaimed. Mr. Humphreys left behind him $11,000 in gold and a quantity of diamonds and jewelry. The diamonds were spirited away and about $5000 in gold was consumed in litigation. The balance lies in the bank subject to the order of deceased's heirs, if any.

Recently on the road running along the Fraser river some cribbing gave way and an ox team and loaded wagon were only saved from destruction by reason of the wagon catching upon a stump which supported the team and wagon until assistance could be had. Four or five hundred dollars worth of the goods were lost. The place where the accident occurred is [illegible] feet above the river, straight up and down.

A Victoria paper says: Capt. Calhoun, of the brig Byzantium, during his repeated voyages between this port and Honolulu has noticed frequently large schools of seals in a certain latitude and longitude about 1,000 miles from any known land. Among these seals were a great number of pups, and the belief of Capt. Calhoun is that an island at present unknown to navigators exists in that part of the Pacific Ocean. If such be the case, its discovery would be of great importance, and British Columbia ought to send out an expedition and if found take possession of it in the name of the New Dominion.

PACIFIC COAST DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 18.—The flags of the different Consulates were displayed to-day and a salute fired from Alcatraz in honor of the anniversary of the Independence of Chili.

Owing to the increase of professional beggars, many of whom are revolting to look at, causing serious consequences in many instances, the San Francisco Benevolent Association applied for assistance to the police, and all such characters will hereafter be sent to the almshouse if deserving, or [illegible] out of the country if impostors.

The steamer [illegible] from Portland arrived this afternoon.

Highway Robbery

RENO, Sept 17.—Last night at half past 10 o'clock the stage from Carson was stopped by three highwaymen wearing masks and armed with double barrel shot guns. On the approach of the stage at Tamarac Mill, some eight miles from here, the robbers ordered the driver to halt, when they demanded the treasure box of Wells Fargo & Co., and opened it with a sledge hammer. They got nothing for their trouble. They then ordered the passengers to get out. They then ranged them in a row and went through each. They were ordered to hold up their hands while one of the party searched; the others held shot guns to their heads. One passenger lost $110, another $15, another, one having secreted $120 in his sleeve, another lost $150, and four or five others lost various amounts of which we are not advised. Among the passengers were Lieut. Gov. Slingerland, Mrs. S. Day of San Francisco, and others. There is no clue as yet to the robbers.

The New Government of France

The Recognition by the United States.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

PARIS, Sept 9.—The official journal of the Republic publishes the reply of Jules Favre to Minister Washburne. He says: He considered it a happy augury for the French Republic to have obtained her first recognition from the United States, which moulded their views and comfortable institutions in independence and civil virtue, and in spite of the terrible ordeals which they passed through conserved with unshaken firmness their faith in the great principles of liberty, whence issue dignity and prosperity.

Nations desiring to become masters of their own destiny must follow the course pursued by yours, must take as symbols love of industry and respect of the rights of all. This is the programme of the Government just established here, from an unfortunate crisis, the result of follies; but at this moment we can have only one care, to deliver the nation from its enemy. In doing so we have the benefits of your example and your persevering courage. In the accomplishment of this task we count upon the support of all men of heart and all Governments interested in the triumph of peace. Strong in the justice of our cause we have a firm hope of success, and the recognition of the Government of Washington gives us confidence.

The members of our Government request me to make known to you their gratitude, and beg you to transmit it to your Government.

The [illegible] the following proclamation:

To the Army: When a General compromises his forces he is removed; when a Government puts in peril by its own weakness the public safety, it is set aside. This is just what France is doing in discarding the dynasty responsible for our misfortunes. It has done boldly in the face of all the world. This act of justice she now executes. The decree under which all [illegible] have been summoned and in the [illegible] secures the public safety.

To save the nation now moves en masse, and [illegible] counts on two things: [illegible] resolution which is invincible, and your heroism, which has never failed, and which in the midst of unmerited reverses has astonished the world. [illegible] the name of the [illegible] (Signed by the Ministers.)

A SIX FOOTED HORSE.—A correspondent in Salem writes us about a curiosity which he saw there in the shape of a six footed horse. Attached to the inner muscles of the forelegs of the animal are two well developed feet. They are smaller than those used for locomotion, have perfectly formed hoofs and can be moved about independent of the action of the larger limb. The animal is a gelding a little over two years old, 15½ hands high, of an iron gray color and graceful in appearance. Such a remarkable formation would lead to the belief that it would be unsightly, but such is not the case, as everything is symmetrical. The owner, James F. Jordan, has also another curiosity, being nothing less than a yearling bull with two tails—one growing naturally and the other from the back. Both of these fly dispersers are moved by the same muscle, so that the winged rib ticklers have but little chance in his vicinity. It is thought this animal [illegible] tion and Commission.

OREGON

Rice Dunbar of Marion county aged 68 years died on the 14th inst. He came to Oregon in 1846.

The P T Company are improving the upper Wallamet. The working party are now above Salem working up stream.

J W Virtue broker of Baker City has sent from that place during the last four months $92 000 in gold dust and bars.

The collegiate year in Wallamet University commenced last Monday under highly favorable circumstances. Prof Roges takes the Chair of Natural Science.

Extensive improvements are being erected at the State Fair grounds. More buildings are being erected and everything is to be placed in as good order as possible.

The Judges of the Supreme Court have accepted an invitation to visit the Linn County Fair this week. They will go up on Thursday and return on Saturday.

The Statesman speaking of the "queue bill" says: "This bill is aimed at the Chinese but it fires some scattering shots that might bring down a Democratic Statesman now and then." Oh Joseph.

The full amount of $50 000 to be given as a subsidy to bring the railroad through Albany has been secured by individual notes and Mr Holladay has been notified that Albany has complied with the terms of his proposition.

The Roseburg Ensign learns that an affray occurred at Empire City in Coos county, in which a man named Liggett shot another man named Akin, the ball taking effect in the breast and passing through the right lung. It was feared the wound was mortal.

The people living in the Forks of the Santiam rejoice in the prospect of having a depot of the Oregon and California Railroad within six miles of their town. The News says the depot will be located at Fretchard and that a gravelled road will be made connecting the two points.

Gov Grover has appointed H H Gilfrey of Lane county to be his Private Secretary, T... H Cann of Wasco to be Agent of the School Commissioners and A J Dennison of Portland to be Adjutant General. By the way as this office has been a source of much trouble to the Democracy and has been so bitterly denounced by them why don't their Legislature abolish it.

The Salem Opera House as we learn from the Statesman was filled a few evenings since to hear Rev Josh Powell preach. Mr Wm Corbett acted as sexton and did the honors well. The sermon despite the eccentricities of the speaker was good and well received. At its close he commenced to sing the well known hymn "For to play on the golden harp." An unfortunate ... caused a momentary confusion and from that out the scene was indescribable. At one moment good order and the next the pews full ... of the speaker drowned amid the clink of falling half dollars thrown on the floor, two little colored boys scrambled to pick them up, cheers, yells, stamping, etc. Two pieces were sung in this manner and the meeting broke up in bad order.

From the Salem Statesman of Friday: Lieutenant W H Heuer of the Corps of Engineers U S A who is engaged in making a survey of the Wallamet river for the purpose of enabling Congress to act upon an appropriation bill for the improvement of that river has completed the examination of Chitwood's Bar and left with his party yesterday ... his camp at Matt ... Bar on Wednesday they took ... during the ... they have been at work have made a complete and accurate chart of that part of the river. The work is being done under the supervision of C I Williams of U S A, who is now at Wa... The work on the Wallamet will be left in charge of Mr Charles F Brown who will be ... go to Umpqua to organize a surveying party there and after these two rivers are well under way the survey of the Sacramento will be commenced. Col Williamson intends to complete all three of these rivers during the present year if possible. The party at work below will finish Matheny's Bar to-day and to-morrow will move camp up the river to work on Humphrey's bar.

The admirers of the late Stonewall Jackson are out in an appeal to the public for assistance to enable them to build a memorial chapel at the Virginia Military Institute Lexington. They calculate that it will require $50 000 to carry out their plans.

THE TERRITORIES

An Idaho paper has extensive mention from ... from Burnt river ... that inexhaustible ... are found there.

The amount of land ordered to be surveyed in Washington Territory under the new appropriation ... acres 140,000 acres of this is in Palouse valley Stevens county.

At Yesler's mill at Seattle, a few days ago ... one hundred feet long seventeen inches wide and twenty two inches deep was sawn out of a single tree ... something for Eastern papers ... to ...

The ... says that Edmiston ... Treasurer of ... county has absconded and that there is little room to doubt that he has bagged about $6 000 of public funds. It is quite a regular thing in Idaho for Treasurers to act in this manner and such occurrences excite little comment.

Land has been purchased at the head of Port Townsend bay for a mill site by agents for a wealthy San Francisco firm who through the assistance of Messrs J ... Swan and J A Kuhn have succeeded in securing nearly a thousand acres for the purpose. Operations have already been commenced by Mr S Hadlock under whose superintendence the work will be carried on and before six months has rolled by a fine steam mill will be in operation on the site.

The Tacoma says the following business was transacted at the Olympia land office during the month of August: Number of acres of land sold ... acres of homestead entries ... military bounty land warrants ... agricultural college receipts ... 210 pre-emptions ... homestead final proofs ... certificates issued to ... on ... Total number of acres 0 02. This is an excellent showing for a single month and indicates that the Sound country is rapidly looking up.

A relic of the famous Lewis & Clark expedition has been discovered near the mouth of the Jefferson river in Montana. It is an old canoe having attached to it several boards which contain wrought nails. The Lewis & Clark expedition camped several weeks at the mouth of the Jefferson in 1805 and there is no doubt that this is one of the boats they left behind them when they moved on to cross the main range as they ... all their boats and some goods there expecting to return in the spring.

A petrified forest is the sensation in Colorado. The place where this new show is on exhibition is about fifty miles from Denver, and the trees are found principally in the banks of a dry sand creek. The banks are from forty to eighty feet high. A mountain torrent in tearing out this gulch has exposed portions of these trees. One tree that has rolled down into the bed of the creek and lies there exposed is about sixty feet in length and six in diameter. It is solid stone principally agate with some opal.

R H Mann from Elko says the Boise Statesman is on a visit to Idaho with a view to see if interest enough can be aroused to build a telegraph line from Elko by way of Cope Silver City Boise Idaho and Centerville to Placerville. He made us a call and exhibited his plan embracing the cost of the line organization of a company etc, and if the sum of $30 000 can be raised the line can be put in operation by the time snow flies. Mr Mann met with fair success in getting good sound subscriptions to stock in Silver and has gone to Idaho and Placerville to see what can be accomplished there.

The Olympia Tribune has the following from Port Townsend: The steamer George S Wright which sailed from Portland on the 7th arrived here about half past nine on the evening of the 9th. She only succeeded in crossing the Columbia river bar on the morning of the 8th after a hard struggle for two hours while endeavoring to work ahead she did not gain an inch. While still in proximity to the bar by the violence of the wind she lost her sails—blown all to pieces. The moment of reaching the wharf here the key which confines the screw in its proper place broke and the screw slipped back against the sternpost. She ran ashore and on Saturday and Sunday succeeded in repairing damages. About six on Sunday she resumed her trip to Alaska.

WAR MISCELLANY

Scientific and other special publications to the number of at least a dozen have been suspended in Paris the cause in two if not more cases was the voluntary departure of writers for the army.

A French theatrical manager is looking for a full house should the Prussians enter Paris. As for me he is reported to have said "I wait for the Prussians with impatience. What receipts we shall have then! Those fellows have money and adore the theater; we shall have a repetition of the grand nights of 1814."

Gustave Dore has executed a picture designed to illustrate the horrors of war. It shows a burning village with the corpses of soldiers heaped up in its streets with dismantled houses and perishing cattle over this scene of ruin and distress rises a lurid moon. He has also drawn one portraying the blessings of peace.

Experiments were last year made in France with a shell which on bursting spread a mortal poison around in the form of mephitic gas. In a few minutes a flight of pigeons in the midst of which a ball full of this frightful substance burst fell dead on the ground; another day the projectile penetrated the body of a horse and so poisoned its blood that the body was in a state of putrefaction two hours after.

A New York dispatch of Sunday September 4th says: The enthusiasm of the Germans of this city over the Prussian victories which are generally accepted as the termination of the war suffered no abatement to day though no formal demonstration was attempted. The beer gardens and public resorts of the Germans have been thronged all day yet good order and public peace have been perfectly preserved. The demand for news from the seat of war has been insatiate, and crowds have eagerly watched the bulletin boards for later intelligence. The Tribune extra of this morning with all the other regular Sunday papers were rapidly swept off and the Tribune this evening issued a postscript to supply the popular demand. Tribunes sold for a dollar each this afternoon. The leading papers concur in the opinion that the war must be virtually ended. The World in a notable editorial says: The surrender of Napoleon III is the surrender not of the war but of the system and is a surrender in which all the world may rejoice save perhaps the very monarch who receives it.

Communication from Mr. Snyder. Ex Sergeant at Arms of the House.

Portland, Oregon, Sept. 18, 1870.

Ed. Oregonian:

The proceedings of the House of Representatives of the Oregon Legislature last Monday and Tuesday bring me rather in a questionable light before the reading public, and in order that my friends may hear both sides and all of the proceedings public and private with which I was connected, I desire to here make a statement in vindication of my own acts.

In the Democratic caucus of the House of Representatives, our party friends nominated a Chief Clerk and gave him the privilege of naming his assistant, and also nominated my self as Sergeant-at-Arms, constructively, with the same prerogatives as had heretofore been the custom. In the Senate caucus there were several ballots for President and Sergeant-at-Arms, and in order to make Mr. Fay President and to make a tie vote for Mr. Holton for Sergeant-at-Arms, those gentlemen agreed with Mr. McConnell that if he would get the two votes from Linn county for them, they would have his son Frank appointed Page of the Senate. McConnell kept his pledge, and Mr. Fay and Mr. Holton were nominated and elected to their respective positions. The nomination of Mr. Holton was secured by Hon. Lansing Stout's vote, who was not present at the caucus, but confined to his bed by sickness. Upon the urgent request of one of the Senators, and greatly against the desire of Mr. Fay, a Senator's step-son was nominated Page by the caucus. This left Mr. Fay and Mr. Holton entirely without power to keep their promise to McConnell, who, of course, and naturally enough, was somewhat exorcised. To appease this gentleman Mr. Fay came to me and demanded I should appoint young McConnell Page of the House. This I refused to do, telling Mr. Fay I had already promised and would be compelled to keep my pledge. Fay persisted in a very insolent and ungentlemanly manner, when I told him he must not presume to run the whole Legislature, and so far as my prerogative was concerned he could not run it or me. He said he would see about that and teach me something. Upon the meeting of the House, Fay had me sent from the Hall of the House by the Speaker on some official business, in order to have Mr. Helm introduce a resolution that after the election of Door-keeper a Page should be selected. This proceeding was had during my absence, and I was not made aware of it until I was informed by my son, a few minutes before the vote was taken, and had barely time to put in nomination my son's name for the position of Page against young McConnell. The vote was taken, and, of course, McConnell was elected.

The per diem of Sergeant-at-Arms is only three dollars, and my selection to that position without all the privileges and emoluments, was giving me empty honors, which of course will not pay for the services of any one who has a family at a distance to support. Upon this proceeding terminating, I told some of my friends I had been wronged and it was a shame that I should have been robbed of one-half of my office to pay the debt of a promise made by Fay and Holton, and I could no longer permit myself to act as Sergeant-at-Arms, and feel other than subjected to their dictation and control, particularly as I knew how one of these gentlemen and his friends acted in the last and former campaigns. He made a "bet he would not vote at last election" and his friends "went fishing," whereby the Multnomah county ticket was defeated. It looked to me then, and does now, that there is a disposition to reward perfidy and punish faithfulness. I have nothing to say about the proceedings of the House on the morning of Tuesday, other than that they were hasty, as it was my intention to have resigned, and to have presented my resignation in a few moments. My delay in going to the House that morning was occasioned by indisposition.

I am a Democrat still, one of those independent Democrats that no demagogue can corrupt to a self-aggrandizing purpose, and nobody can buy. To those true men of the party I say beware of disorganizers and their coadjutors. They have been the bane of the party in Multnomah, and if care is not taken they will be the means of your destruction throughout the State in the future. To the gentleman of the House of Representatives I am under many obligations for favors they have conferred. Yours, etc.,

ALBERT M. SNYDER.

The Strong Financial Position of the United States.

[From the New York Herald.]

While the governments of the great European nations can hardly make both ends meet, even in time of peace, this country has an over-flowing treasury, and is paying the national debt off at the rate of over a hundred millions of dollars a year. The stupendous sum raised and expended during the four years of our war was unparalleled in the history of the world, and all without a foreign loan or aid from foreign capitalists. There never was a war that cost so much within the same time; for not only were the forces raised enormous, but the pay and equipment of the men and the cost of everything used were much greater than in any other country. The cost of the Prussian and French armies in pay, clothing, provisions, arms and everything else for war purposes is less than a third, probably, of what the same number of men and amount of materials was here. Then look at the enormous bounties paid—from five hundred to a thousand dollars a man—an amount that would equip and support a French or German soldier for several years. Besides, the general extravagance and plunder of the treasury were frightful, and would have bankrupted any other nation. No country in the world could raise such sums as we did. Yet five years after the war not only has all the vast floating debt been discharged but we have paid off several hundred millions of the organized debt. At the present rate of liquidation we could extinguish the whole, which is a little more than two thousand millions, within fifteen years.

It is not surprising, therefore, that our credit remains good during the terrible conflict of arms that is convulsing Europe. At first, of course, United States securities felt the shock, as all others did, from that natural sympathy which the finances of one great civilized country have with those of other countries. But afterwards, when people and capitalists began to reason more clearly the resources of the United States and the superior value and security of our bonds, they clung to them as the best investment they could have. Hence there have been few of our bonds sent home from Europe. Nor is it likely there would be any serious depreciation if even the war should spread over Europe. Our superior and well paying securities would be held and be sought for by the people no matter what strain there might be upon the governments and capitalists for money. There is no reason, indeed, why our bonds should not gradually rise to their true value under any events that may occur in Europe. If we have been able to accomplish so much in raising money for a gigantic war and in rapidly paying off the debt in the past what can we not do in the near future when our population will be doubled and the wealth of the country quadrupled?

Canadian Retaliation.—The New York Herald says:

The oppressive measures which the New Dominion government has taken to revenge itself on the United States for the repeal of the Reciprocity treaty have assumed such a shape that it is probable Secretary Fish will institute negotiations to have them abrogated altogether. It appears that, besides forbidding Americans from fishing in Canadian waters, they also forbid American vessels engaged in the fishing business from entering the Canadian ports in the fishing grounds. Like all Canadian attempts at retaliation, however, this one redounds on the Bluenoses almost as severely as on the Yankees. Business in Prince Edward Island is languishing in consequence, and the people are loudly complaining.

A Washington dispatch says the work of reducing the number of officers of the army, under the new law, is rapidly going on.

It seems that the matter of freight for Oregon is just at this time attracting much notice in San Francisco. It is said that the Oriflamme, now en route, was obliged to decline freight for Portland three days in advance of her sailing time, and the telegraph informs us that the California will sail on her two days in advance of her regular day, and that her cargo is now already engaged. In addition to this [illegible] are now loading, and, by the way, which makes a pretty extensive fleet. The Stephand, with Carmen Island Salt is among those referred to.

NOTICE.

HOLDERS OF TICKETS to the GIFT CONCERT in aid of the Mercantile Library Association, are hereby notified, that the Concert is postponed until

Monday, October 31st, 1870

Unexpected interferences have operated to make this delay necessary to accomplish the result of freeing the Library from debt, without recourse to other privileges granted by act of the Legislature, passed February 19, 1870.

This is positively the only postponement which will be made. The Concert will take place on the day above named, commencing at nine o'clock, A. M., and to continue until all the gifts have been awarded.

The funds already in bank are considerably more than sufficient to insure the successful completion of the contract with the public.

The sale of tickets will positively close on Friday, the 28th day of October, 1870.

All tickets remaining unsold at that time will be withdrawn from sale and cancelled. They will be advertised by their numbers, on the 29th day of October, 1870, in one or more of the daily papers of this city. Any diminution thus made in the number of tickets to be drawn, will not affect the number or amount of gifts. They will be as heretofore advertised, to wit: 628 gifts amounting in all to $500,000 gold.

Ticket holders residing out of San Francisco will receive duly accredited lists of the awards of Gifts, which will also be published in the leading San Francisco daily papers, on the 1st November, 1870.

Delivery of gifts will commence November 2d, 1870, at the Office, No. 318 California Street, to all parties presenting tickets to which gifts have been awarded. All gifts awarded to non-residents will be held to their order and for their account.

SECURE A HOME!!

THE RIVERSIDE

HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION!

OF

EAST PORTLAND, OREGON.

IS NOW PREPARED TO RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS to their Stock.

Application for ONE HUNDRED SHARES was made before the books were opened, and a large number of Shares have been taken.

The following extracts from the Oregonian and Bulletin will convey a good idea of the plan and workings of the Association, the location of the land, etc., etc.

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

This association of whose organization we gave an account a few days since, is now ready to dispose of shares. As it is with one exception, (the Portland Homestead Association,) the pioneer organization of that kind in this city, it may be well enough to state what are its purposes, and the manner in which it is proposed to conduct its operations. The purposes of these Homestead Associations are not at all speculative in the ordinary sense of the word. They are dependent for the profits of their investment upon the natural advance in the value of their lands, consequent upon the co-operation of many individuals—shareholders—and the advance on values of all surrounding lands by reason of the expansion of population and demand for room outside of, but still near, the city. The Riverside Homestead Association has a fraction over one hundred and twenty acres of land situated just south of Brooklyn on the east side of the river, the nearest boundary line being about one mile from the ferry landing at East Portland. The tract lies in one strip along the Wallamet river, half a mile in length, and another strip along the Oregon and California railroad, half a mile in length, the two strips being connected near the middle by two rows of blocks (with a street between them,) the whole forming a figure not unlike the letter H. It is divided into 74 blocks, 200 feet square (with streets running at right angles) and 80 fractional lots, along the river front. The shares number 600, worth $60 per share. It will be seen that a share thus represents nearly a lot with an undivided interest in the 80 fractional lots. The 80 fractional shares are to be sold off at the proper time for the benefit of the Association, shareholders coming in for the proceeds in proportion to the number of shares held. When all shares are taken and the Association shall determine to do it, the choice of lots and blocks will be put up at auction to the highest bidder, the proceeds of such sales, after deducting the original price of shares or lots, to be divided equally among the whole number of shares. Thus, if a person wants a particular lot or block, and is willing to pay $100 or $500 premium (more or less as the case may be) he pays it and takes the lot or block as his individual property, the premium being divided among the whole number of shareholders. It will be seen, therefore, that everything is co-operative, and all interests mutual. No man can make a dollar out of it without also making a dollar for every other equal shareholder. There is no chance for loss, unless the property, by some chance, should depreciate far below the first actual cost. Whether this is liable to happen in the case of this particular tract of land must be judged by each for himself; but considering the steady and unprecedented advance on real estate in this city and neighborhood, and at East Portland and vicinity, for the last year or two, it seems hardly possible for values to go back.

In the Riverside Association all proper precautions seem to have been taken to guard against monopolies of shares. No person is allowed to buy more than the number of shares representing three blocks, or twenty-four lots, and votes determining the operations of the Association are restricted in the same manner. The buyers of shares may pay down $60 per share, which will exempt them from all assessments, or they may pay $15 quarterly with an assessment of $3 per share, payable with the first installment, being liable in this latter case to another (and only one other) assessment of $3 per share. Upon the payment of the shares in full, with the assessments as above, the holder is entitled to his certificate and his proportion of all the profits accrued from all sources. No officer of the Association receives any pay for services except the Secretary, who gets $25 per month; so it will be seen that the expenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying along the river is a high plateau, nearly level, about 60 to 80 feet above the water. There is no part of the front row of blocks but commands a splendid view of Portland and the river for miles up and down stream. That part of the tract lying along the railroad is, every foot of it, of the richest loam soil and adapted to gardening purposes. A beautiful little stream of pure water runs through almost the entire length of this wing of the tract, affording the means of irrigation, and power sufficient to supply pure water to every part of the whole tract. There is not a waste lot or fractional lot in the entire tract. Under all those advantages, it would seem impossible that there should be any chance of loss to shareholders. Within a year each shareholder, if he choose, may get a perfect title to as many lots as his shares may represent, or he may continue his interest, undivided, with the Association while the organization may exist.—Oregonian.

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

We have been led to make these remarks from the fact that the subject of making homesteads on the outskirts of this city and East Portland, is being thoroughly discussed here among all classes, and one homestead—the "Riverside," just south of East Portland has already been established. The site selected is a tract of land lying a little over a mile south of the ferry landing. It is shaped like the letter H, one side of which, a half mile in length, borders on the river.

From this portion of the homestead, which is elevated but a trifle above the other prong of the H, but is still forty or fifty feet above the river, can be had an extensive view of Portland, East Portland, the shipping, and the Willamette river for several miles. The land is very fertile, and is partly covered with light fir timber. A tract of land just wide enough for two rows of blocks, with an avenue between them, connects the west prong of the H (which has already been described) with that of the east. This last tract of land is in a beautiful little valley, which is now under a high state of cultivation. Through its whole length runs a trout brook, the water of which is clear as crystal. With a hydraulic ram the Association propose to have water conveyed through pipes to every portion of the homestead.—Daily Bulletin.
